

Bone Cancer Research Trust in-person events Code of Conduct

1. To respect each other's right to privacy, please keep information you see or hear to yourself and refrain from sharing with others without permission.
2. Do not take photographs or videos without seeking consent in advance from other attendees or Bone Cancer Research Trust (BCRT) staff.
3. In-person events provide peer-to-peer support for the primary bone cancer community. Be mindful that any medical information shared is based on an individual's diagnosis and may not be applicable to your personal circumstances.
4. Use respectful and appropriate language. Do not use terms or swear words or use abusive or threatening language that attendees may find offensive.
5. Being under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs is prohibited; if suspected you will be asked to leave the event.
6. Inappropriate behaviour towards attendees or BCRT staff will not be tolerated. If such incident occurs, you will be escorted from the venue and will not be able to return.
7. Children always remain the responsibility of parents/ guardians during the event.
8. Personal/valuable items brought to the event are at the attendees' own risk and BCRT assumes no responsibility if these items are stolen/damaged.
9. All attendees must be registered prior to the event to ensure BCRT staff can manage capacity.
10. BCRT staff must be informed of any dietary requirements prior to the event.
11. Please ensure name badges (if provided) are worn and can be seen clearly.

If you require further information or would like to raise any concerns, please contact the Support & Information team: support@bcrt.org.uk.